It added something to the book hearing Hillary read it. This book was an amazing insight as to how one can deal and heal after something so devastating as the 2016 election. As well, it was an intriguing commentary about "what happened" from her point of view. Say what you want about her politics, but Hillary Clinton is a strong woman who can teach the world much about love, equality

What happened to Hillary Rodham Clinton is much like what happened with this book. Nothing. A woman in politics thinks she is going to be president and loses. This is her talking to herself and cleaning house to keep the pain of defeat at bay. Just my opinion. Another book bites the dust. Will anyone care in 20 years about this book?
