Extend crate time Once your dog is hanging out in her closed crate without signs of stress, it's time to lengthen her stay. Use a favorite toy or treat to encourage her to enter the crate, then close it. Hang out by the crate for several minutes, then go into a different room for a few minutes so she gets used to the idea of staying in the crate alone. When you return, don't open the crate immediately. Instead, sit with her again for a few more minutes and then open the door.
