The Animal Manifesto: Six Reasons for Expanding Our ...

The Animal Manifesto is a good introduction to animal rights, but not recommended for the experienced activist. It covers basic issues such as factory farms, animal sentience, and the use of animals in science, but spends a surprisingly large number of words talking in circles and reiterating previous points.

But manifesto might also make you think of militancy, a sort of Marxian revolution of the downtrodden and an overthrow of the tyrannical, affluent bourgeoisie. Fortunately, Bekoff's The Animal Manifesto is launching a campaign for compassion, not screaming for violent revolution.

Manifesto Animal Justice Party

Animal justice needs to move from the margins of human interest to the mainstream if we are all to benefit from engaging with animal worlds through kindness and compassion. The Animal Justice Party is therefore not a single issue party.
